Winter Carnival Tickets On Sale Tuesday

Tickets for the Kirkland Lake Festivals Committee's 2016 Winter Carnival concerts and fish derby go on sale Tuesday morning at 10 o'clock.

The concerts kick off with the New Music Night in the Northern College Gymnasium on Saturday, February 13. Emerging stars Scott Helman, Ria Mae and Eric Zayne will be performing.

New Music Night concert tickets are $20 in advance. The concert is all ages. The back half of the floor will be licensed for ages 19 years and over.

Halifax singer-songwriter David Myles performs in the Northern College Auditorium on Thursday, February 18. Tickets are $25 in advance.

The $50,000 Alamos Gold Fish Derby is set for Saturday, February 20 on Otto Lake at Culver Park, followed by the elimination draw and pub at Northern College that night.

Fish Derby ticket packages are $100 and include one fish derby entry, a chance to win the $5,000 elimination draw, plus admission to the pub featuring "20 Ride", the Zac Brown Band tribute.

There are four early bird prizes for the fish derby that will be drawn Fridays until Christmas including: $1,000 cash, a 40" TV, Winter Carnival concert tickets, and a free entry into the 2017 derby.

The Stars of Pop concert has been renamed the "Kids Winter Jam Party" and will feature a live band playing current hits from Macklemore, Ariana Grande, Hedley, Demi Lovato and more.

The Kids Winter Jam Party is set for Sunday, February 14 in the Northern College Gymnasium. Tickets are $10 in advance.

Tickets for all KL Festivals concerts and the fish derby will be available at reception at the Community Complex. All sales are cash only. Online tickets are available at www.klfestivals.com.

Other carnival events include the Rotary Club presenting hypnotist Robert Maxwell in the Northern College Auditorium on Wednesday, February 17.

Hypnotist tickets are $10 in advance and will be available starting Tuesday at Goldland's, Mac's West or from members of the Kirkland Lake Rotary Club.

The Family Entertainment Series' Winter Carnival show is "Everybody Loves Pirates", which is set for Friday, February 19. Tickets are $10 at the Hobby Shop and Mac's East.

Kabaret has three performances in the Northern College Auditorium on February 25, 26 and 27. Tickets will be going on sale in the coming weeks.

In addition, tickets will be available soon for the ECJV Dinner and Show, the Kirkland Lake Skating Club's Ice Show, the Stingrays Steak BBQ, and the CJKL Carnival Queen Fashion Show and Crowning.

Winter Carnival will also feature a poker run, free kids matinees, sliding and skating parties, snow drag races, free sleigh rides, and the NorthernTel Kids Carnival.

Registration forms are on the KL Festivals website for the snow sculpture competition, the Rotary hockey tournament, the free kids fish derby and the Carnival curling bonspiel.

Local organizations wishing to add an event to the Winter Carnival schedule can contact the Kirkland Lake Festivals Committee.

The Kirkland Lake Winter Carnival will feature 18 days of events from February 11-28. The online schedule of events is being updated daily at www.klfestivals.com.
